4th Infantry Division History

The 4th Infantry Division's nickname, "Ivy" Division, comes from the design of its shoulder patch: four green ivy leaves joined at the stem and opening at the four corners. Ivy leaves are symbolic of tenacity and fidelity and are the basis of the Division Motto, "Steadfast and Loyal." The word "Ivy" is a play on the Roman numeral four, "IV."

The 4th Infantry Division has participated in four combat tours including World War I, World War II, Vietnam and most recently, Operation Iraqi Freedom. In November 2002, the 4th Infantry Division assumed the division ready brigade mission and by January of 2003, received orders to form a task force in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. The division began deploying in March of 2003. In March of 2004 the Division returned from Iraq. In September of 2004, the Division dedicated its first Memorial in honor of the sacrifices its Soldiers made during Operation Iraqi Freedom.

In August of 2005 the Division received orders for deployment to Operation Iraqi Freedom 05-07. In the succeeding months, the Soldiers of Task Force Ironhorse trained and prepared for another year of combat. By December of 2005 the entire Division assumed the battle-space of Multi-National Division Baghdad. Task Force Ironhorse met Army strategic objectives as Multi-National Division Baghdad by training nine Iraqi police brigades and ten Iraqi Army brigades, assisting the Iraqis in fighting the insurgency and becoming increasingly self-reliant. While conducting combat operations the Ironhorse Division destroyed more than 500 weapons caches, and killed or detained over 120 high value targets, dealing a significant blow to insurgent operations. Task Force Ironhorse also completed more than 1,000 civic action projects including 146 water and sewage projects, 145 road improvement projects, and 37 major agriculture projects that invested $580 million into the Iraqi economy. These accomplishments are only a small representation of the Division's tenacity and strength in combat.

Today, the 4th Infantry Division is preparing to return to Iraq, later this year.

MISSION - SOLDIER - FAMILY - TEAM

We will never forget.

May 23, 2007

*"Let the word go forth from this time
and place, to friend and foe alike,
that the torch has been passed to a new generation of Americans -- born in this century, tempered by war, disciplined
by a hard and bitter peace, proud of our ancient heritage and unwilling to witness or permit the slow undoing of those human rights to which this nation has always been committed,
and to which we are committed today at home and around the world."*

President John F. Kennedy
